Dear Louise,

Thank you for your letter to the Sangamon County Genealogical Society. Enclosed is a copy of the marriage record you requested for James HARP and Matilda ANDERSON. I found it in the Sangamon County Genealogical Society publication "Sangamon Co, IL, Marriage Records, 1821-1840." The certificate itself is not available.

Non-members pay a research fee of $5.00 plus .25 per photocopy. Thank you for your donation to the Sangamon County Genealogical Society.

Sincerely,

Gail

SANGAMON COUNTY, IL., MARRIAGE RECORDS, 1821-1840

INTRODUCTION

Sangamon County, Illinois, which presently encompasses 880 square miles, was established on January 30, 1821. In 1819 its present western portion was in Madison County and its eastern portion in Bond County (see map). To note the boundaries of Sangamon by 1821, see map which shows 13 later counties then included in Sangamon. For this reason, names of many brides and grooms listed on the pages following were undoubtedly residents living outside the present Sangamon County boundaries. The first residents of what is now Springfield were John and Mary Whiteside Kelley, who with their children came here from Rutherford county, North Carolina, in the spring of 1819.

By 1827, Sangamon encompassed only the present counties of Sangamon, Menard, and portions of Christian, Macon and Logan. In 1839 it was reduced to its present size.

Since the early marriage books from which these marriages were copied are very fragile, containing torn corners, many names and dates are difficult to read. Where handwriting is nearly illegible, it was decided to list alternate spellings of names. Approximately one-fourth of the marriages have been checked with the first marriage index book for spelling. Occasionally names are indexed under two spellings, one name by the groom, and another by the bride. When an unusual surname appeared in the records, the compilers checked the spelling with J. C. Power's, Early Settlers of Sangamon County for possible verification.

All of the marriages shown occurred between the years 1821 and 1840. Dates with one asterisk are the dates the licenses were issued, and the dates shown in parentheses are the dates the marriages were recorded. The early marriage books in the Sangamon County office seldom differentiate date of license from date of marriage or date recorded. For explanation of two asterisks, see ADDENDA for additional information concerning a given record.

Ten marriages between the years of 1821 and 1823 were found in the marriage index book which were not found or copied originally by our members. They are noted with ++, and are listed in the Addenda for possible dates or explanations.

Ref: Gregory Stone Genealogy by J. Gardner Bartlett

Nathaniel's birth was registered at Sudbury, the nearest town to Framingham which was then an unincorporated wilderness.

9. Hezekiah's wife, Ruth Howe 1715-1809, was the sister of Col. Ezekiel Howe, and the daughter of Dav'd How of Sudbury who established the "Red Horse Tavern".

GENEALOGICAL RECORD

All of the first five generations listed, except Judith and Jacob, No. 12 and No. 15 of the fifth, were born in the vicinity of Dierbach in De Pfalz am Rhein, Germany. Their church records are in the Reformed Kirchenbuch at Barbelroth, near-by.

The fourth generation, No. 6, Johann Heinrich Hörner, his wife, Anna Maria (Moock) Hörner, and their family, in order to rid themselves of religious and political persecutions, left their home, and started their trek to America.

They sailed down the Rhine river to Rotterdam where they crossed the English Channel to England where King George 2nd assembled them for the purpose of colonizing America.

At a small seaport by the name of Cowes on the Isle of Wight off the southern coast of England, they embarked on the ship Osgood under Capt. William Wilkie with 486 passengers, and sailed for America. They landed at Philadelphia, September 29, 1750.

Above is as per port of landing [List 157C] as recorded in Vol. 1, Penna. German Pioneers, by Penna. German Society.

The Reformed church records at Barbelroth, De Pfalz am Rhein are through the very capable genealogist, Herrn Dr. Fritz Braunn, Kaiserslautern, auf der Pirsch, 34, Pfalz, Germany.

Gottlieb Mittelberger in his Journey to Pennsylvania in the year 1750, writes: "I came on the ship Osgood and landed in Philadelphia September 29, 1750. This journey lasts from the beginning of May to the end of October, fully half a year, amid such hardships as no one is able to describe adequately with their misery. The cause is because the Rhine boats from Heilbronn to Holland have to pass by 26 custom houses, at all of which the ships are examined, which is done when it suits the convenience of the custom-house officials. In the meantime the ships with the people are detained long, so that the passengers have to spend much money. The trip down the Rhine lasts therefore four, five and even six weeks. When the ships come to Holland, they are detained there likewise five to six weeks. Because things are very dear there, the poor people have to spend nearly all they have during that time. The second stage of the journey was from Rotterdam to one of the English ports. Most of the ships called at Cowes, on the Isle of Wight. This was the favorite stopping place, as 142 ships are recorded as having sailed from Rotterdam to Cowes."
